Jubilee Days 2010 – We're celebrating our community this year with the theme, "Embracing Our Differences". Featuring Champagne Sunday, a national touring band from Ventura, California who will be performing throughout the parade. This band is Bette Midler meets Pearl Jam!

Award Categories – Classic and antique Cars, Specialty, Novelty, Drill Teams, Marching Bands, and commercial groups.

FOR ENTRY FORMS CONTACT – AMANDA AMEND (253) 592-2048 or email your entry at amend2@comcast.net

Basic Parade Information:

Entry Numbers should be placed as follows:

All vehicles (lower left front windshield)

Walking, Marching and Dancing units (carried by the forward left-sided person)

Distribution of objects, such as candy, flyers, etc.: Must be handed out curbside. Please do not drop objects in the street where children may be tempted to retrieve them. No silly string. Please use litter containers.

Cleanliness – Please keep the area clean. Local businesses have supported this fun activity and with everyone's help we can leave it as good as, or better, than we found it.

Manners – Rude or threatening behavior will not be tolerated. Please be courteous to one another and volunteer staff as well.

Food – Food is available in the parade staging area at Mc Donalds and from the Street Fair Food Court at the end of the parade route.

Parade Route – Starting at SW 112th St, Heading North, to SW 100th St. Leave the area via 15th for easiest departure. You can leave your car at the beginning or end of the parade route to avoid any unnecessary walking. Please do not leave valuables in your car and lock your doors. Jubilee days is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Announcer's Stage – Hosted by First Choice Espresso.

Awards – Amanda Amend will contact the winners and send out the awards accordingly
